

Thomas F. Tapling

“Today, we had to say goodbye to our dad. He was the epitome of a fighter and somebody who showed such perseverance, especially through the past three years. He was one of the kindest, most hardworking and genuine, and fun person and we will miss him a lot. His goofy voicemails, daily phone calls, group texts and his general goofiness will be hard to go without. Love you a lot, Dad. “

“ Tommy and I spent so many hours together at CTA we joked about getting married. Overtime included sometimes we were together more than family. We retired together probably because we couldn't stand the idea of working apart. Tommy was a great friend , we had great fun together and I'll miss being able to talk to him. If there's a heaven he has a golden ticket. Good man , good Dad , good family. I'll see you later gator!

It's truly heart-breaking to lose one the really good guys. Not many people can easily bring a smile to your face by simply hearing their name. "Tommy T" did it for me. Happily, and I am sure I am not alone, that name instantly conjures an image of mischief, silliness, and a twinkle in the eye. What a talent to go through life making people laugh and smile while being so kind and decent. Tommy T will be greatly missed.

I was shocked to hear the sad news. Tommy was a great guy to be around. Always made things fun. I worked with him for many years at the CTA and Mike Dalton was right. You think they had a thing going. So sorry for your loss. He was always a stand up guy. I was lucky to have known him. God Bless RIP
