PS

“ I know Tomas Nunez and his family since the 1980's. He gave me a good school friend, his daughter Nita. I remember going to visit Nita and her father Tomas would be surrounded by his children. He loved having conversations with them. Always kind and generous. He was a great man. He will live on through his children and grandchildren. I know he is in Heaven and may God one day give me the pleasure of meeting him again. My deepest Sympathy to the family. God Bless.
