“ Hi Virgil, I was a hippie girlfriend of yours briefly back in 1969 or so...I remember even after 40+ years the day you came over and said, "Guess what?" and pulled your hand out to show your fingers had met an unfortunate fate in a factory accident. It almost made me faint on the spot. You were a good guy ;)

“ Our heartfelt sympathies to his family and all his many friends. So many great memories....my "old school" buddy, trading junk (treasures) with me weekly. Flirting with my wife & daughter...all harmless, I know!
Miss his jokes and loony smile already. He had a colorful life, and he will be greatly missed by all. Cheers to you my friend, thanks for all the good times!
Rest in peace Loony Tunes... Love, John Schoonveld, Patty & Kelly too :)

“ Virgil, you were dear to us, to me, to Fred, to my family. We will always remember your friendship, your fireworks displays at our annual BBQ's, your help year after year with set-up and clean-up, your zaniness, your jokes, Trixie and Lamont. You had such a good heart and will be greatly missed. Michelle
