“ Wanda was a good friend to my aunt, Stella Wazny. The two would spend many an evening talking on the phone. After my aunt passed last summer, Wanda and I became phone buddies, talking about all kinds of things, especially Polish recipes, trips to Poland and polka bands. I will miss her humor, her kindness, and her joy for family and friends.

My deepest condolences to her family, whom she talked about often and loved very much.

“ Wanda was such a positive light and joyous energy for all those around her. It always amazed me how, despite her age, how much energy she had, how independent she was, and how involved she was in the lives of her children and grandchildren. A true inspiration! While we didn't have the opportunity to see Wanda that often in person, she never missed a beat in remembering an anniversary, birth of a baby, or even the passing of a loved one, by sending us a personal card with kind words. That kindness will forever be cherished. Our deepest condolences to the entire Kowalik family on the loss of such a special lady. We hope you find comfort in the many memories shared and the lives she touched. Sending our love and prayers, Adriana & Sean Gabbard and family

“ Wanda was a hoot! We had many laughs at the Polka luncheons that I took Stella W to. My favorite was when we played a "who did it" game of mystery. Our table won!
My sympathy to her family,
Jan
