“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. We are so sorry to hear about Bills passing. I bet he is having a wonderful reunion with my mom and dad. You are blessed with many wonderful memories that will bring both tears and laughter as you move forward with your lives. I will never forget Bill, as he always had a kind word for me and not to mention saved me from all the worms on the sidewalk!!!! (that was many,many years ago).
I'm sure he will be smiling down on all of you and if you see green clouds in the sky on St. Patrick's day you will know who made that happen.

*Sending love and hugs to all of you,

“ My sincere condolences to the Cooke family. While staying in Garfield Ridge a few years back, I often ran into Mr. Cooke while out walking. He was always very friendly and nice. He talked to me about the family. He was very proud of them and lit up while filling me in about everyone. May he rest in peace.
