“ Bill Matyskela was a great Chicago Police Officer in addition to being a total gentleman who served and protected the public with dignity, professionalism, and compassion for many years. Everyone who had the good fortune to know him came away better for the experience. Thanks also for his service to our country as a soldier in the United States Army. May his family find peace now in the all the prayers for his eternal soul during their time of sorrows.

“ I’ll never forget when he called me to come right over because a bird had gotten into the basement and was stuck in the dropped ceiling. It was driving him crazy all morning because he could hear it chirping but couldn’t find it. We went in the basement and he told me to stand still and be completely quiet. So there we are, standing like mannequins until we finally hear a “cheep cheep.” I looked at my Dad and told him to follow me because I found it. We walked into the laundry room and I pointed to it. He said he didn’t see it. So I got even closer to it and he finally realized that it was the smoke detector chirping because the batteries were running low. When he realized his mistake, he could not stop laughing! (to be fair, birds have gotten stuck there in the past, so it definitely was a possibility) He was just mad that he wasted his morning trying to find it. I considered it justice for the time he told me that a bird pops out of the hole when a golfer gets a birdie. I sat and watched golf on TV waiting to see a bird. And when a golfer eventually got a birdie and I said I didn’t see the bird, he told me I must’ve blinked and missed it. There are no words to describe how much I’m going miss you and how much I love you.
