“ Mama Perez, although we didn't know each other, we did in fact meet. You brought Saffrie into the world, one of the most beautiful and genuine people I've ever met. She has been, therefore you have been, a bright light in my life and easily one of the most important people to me in the world. I know that's Mama Perez that shines through her. And I thank you. You've left a beautiful legacy in each and every person your light has touched, everyone who was blessed to hear your voice, and share a moment with you. You live through all of your children, beautiful grandchildren, family, and friends. And through each of them Mama Perez from time to time we meet again.

Sending the Perez family my deepest and sincerest condolences. I love you all.
